The Dragonboat Racing Association of Colorado (DRACO) is a recently-formed non-profit organization, whose goal is to promote dragon boat racing in Colorado, and to train dragon boat teams to compete in national and international races. DRACO is a subset of the Colorado Dragon Boat Festival organization (CDBF), which hosts its own prestigious Colorado Dragon Boat Festival each summer.

In 2009, we raced in the inaugural Rose Regatta in Las Vegas, marking an important milestone for DRACO. That was the first time Colorado sent a dragon boat team to compete outside of the Denver area! Last year, we raced here in San Diego, and we ventured out again this March in Arizona.

We're thrilled to be making another trip to San Diego! Come see our distinctive rendition of the Ka Mate Haka, and watch us race to victory!
